From the East

My Brothers,

It being the summer, with many of our snow bird brothers back home, and others going on vacations, I just want to remind everyone if you are in town during any of the three events going on this month, starting with FC degree on the 3rd at Harbor City, Masters & Wardens on the 6th at our lodge, and then our meeting on the 8th, your attendance would be appreciated. I know there are a couple of hands I have not shaken in quite a while, and as we are finalizing estimates of renovations, all of your opinions and expertise are greatly valued.

Fraternally,
WM: Mattan Newhouse

From the West

Rather than our usual message from the West, all of the Brothers at Canaveral Lodge have a message of love and warm wishes for our Senior Warden and his wife: Theresa Jones.

REMEMBER TO SEND US YOUR EMAIL ADDRESS
FOR A COPY OF THE TRESTLEBOARD

We will have hard copies available at the lodge, so stop by, say hello & pick up a copy.

JD's Joke of the Month

Originally written by brother Sean Brimlow.

A lesson to be learned from typing the wrong email address!
A Welsh couple decided to go to Florida to thaw out during a particularly icy winter.
They planned to stay at the same hotel where they spent their honeymoon 20 years earlier.
Because of hectic schedules, it was difficult to coordinate their travel schedules.
So, the husband left Wales and flew to Florida on Thursday, with his wife flying down the following day.
The husband checked into the hotel. There was a computer in his room, so he decided to send an email to his wife. However, he accidentally left out one letter in her email address, and without realizing his error, sent the email.
Meanwhile, somewhere in England, a widow had just returned home from her husband's funeral. He was a Worshipful brother who was called to the Grand Lodge above following a heart attack.
The widow decided to check her email expecting messages from relatives and friends. After reading the first message, she screamed and fainted.
The widow's son rushed into the room, found his mother on the floor, and saw the computer screen which read:
To: My Loving Wife
Subject: I've Arrived
Date: October 16, 2007
I know you're surprised to hear from me. They have computers here now and you are allowed to send emails to your loved ones. I've just arrived and have been checked in. I see that everything has been prepared for your arrival tomorrow.
Looking forward to seeing you then! Hope your journey is as uneventful as mine was.
P.S. Sure is freaking hot down here!

S&F,

Jayson

From the Secretary Desk

August 2016

My Brothers, we have two monthly meetings coming up on August 08th and September 12th then it is back to twice monthly with the first one schedule for October 10th.

We, your Brethren of Canaveral Lodge would be delighted to have you sit with us who on a regularly basis and also enjoy the companionship of each other and close friends.

Most of our Brothers became members many years ago, some few years ago but have not been visiting on a regular schedule to their Lodge and that my Brother is why some of the new ones have no idea who you are. We would be please if only one time a year that you came to get acquainted if for no other reason.

Many of you have 25; 40; and 50 or many years thereafter of service and very few ever come to receive their awards and appreciation with accolades from your Brethren. Receiving these Service Awards is a mark of excellent that says you are an upstanding Man and Masons of your community and you should be recognize as such. If you are unable to come in person or if no other means you are unable to travel here we would be delighted to assist your means personally. Ask, and it shall be given.

Hopefully before year end your Lodge will have a new beautiful appearance that will enhance to prospect of attracting new members. Even those who are just visiting or just passing by the Lodge will go around the block and give three knocks and be welcome with a warm handshake. The Sisters of our Chapter are always looking for new faces.

Your lodge always has a warm meal prior to meeting and plenty of fellowship to please body or mind. Come join us whenever you are looking for an evening away from a monotonous part of your life. Remember this; many of your Brothers have something in common with yourself no matter what years of history it was. We all have something to keep alive in our lives that combine us to History.

Dues Notices were sent to twelve (12) Delinquent Brothers and to this date only two (2) have been receive by the Lodge Secretary. Please check any personal mail lying around to see if it has been overlook? Thanks

Fraternally yours,
Rodger Fowler
