From the EAST

Brothers,

With the Holidays before us, it is most important not lose sight of giving praise and thanks to the most holy and glorious Lord God, Great Architect of the Universe, the Giver of all good gifts and graces.

Mutual tolerance in religious opinions is one of the most distinguishing and valuable characteristics of the Craft. As all religions teach morality, if a Brother be found to act the part of a truly honest man, his private speculative opinions are left to God and himself. Thus through the influence of Masonry, which is reconcilable to the best policy, all those disputes which embitter life and sour the tempers of men are avoided, while the common good, the general object, is zealously pursued.

Fraternally,
John Johanson, W:.M:.

From the South

From the South

Brothers, the holiday season is upon us. I wish everyone who is traveling, safe travels. As you know elections are the first meeting in December. I look forward to seeing as many as you as can make it. We have several petitions turned in which means we will have a lot of degree work in the coming year. Please help out when called upon if you can. It's exciting to see our lodge experience some growth. The Thanksgiving dinner we had was a huge success as well as the Widows luncheon. I want to thank you all for your support.

We've had some great meals lately and I would like to thank Brother Casey Roberts and Brother Terry Lewis for all their help. As this year closes I have had a lot of fun sitting in the South as your Jr. Warden and I look forward to continued fellowship with all of you in the years to come.

I want to thank all of you for your prayers for my wife and please keep her in your prayers as she continues her treatment for cancer. Remember to keep all our brothers in your prayers especially the sick and distressed. I look forward to fellowship with all of you soon.

Fraternally,
Rick Jones, JW

From the West

My Brothers

This year has finally come to a close with the arrival of December. It has been a sad year for the Lodge as we realize the loss of our beloved Brother, Armin Wolle. I personally remember Brother Armin taking charge of the Christmas float the last few years, and would like to ask all who can, to participate in this year's parade as a way to honor him. I am writing this the day before Thanksgiving, and must express my gratefulness for all of the Brothers that make up our Lodge. The physical building that we have to put some work into this year, and the degree work which we also must put some work into, are all important, as well as the rich history of the fraternity for which we belong, but personally, nothing trumps the quality of men I have come to call my Brothers. Thank you. As Masons we are taught not only to help each other, but to hasten, to not hesitate, as long as it is within our means. And just as we have done throughout the year, and the years before, may we continue to share this tenant of Freemasonry with all of humanity, especially during this season of giving.

Brother Matt Newhouse, SW

Stated Meeting

December 14th Stated Meeting
Election of Officers

From the Worshipful Master's Desk

Brothers,

It was discussed in Lodge that instead of making a monthly donation to charity, we will do it on a quarterly basis instead. Doing so would make more of a financial impact on the charity of our choosing. We also discussed trying to give to local charities that would, one, keep our monies here locally, and two, help expose our community to Masonry and hopefully bring in membership to our Lodges.

If you know of a local charity that could benefit from our involvement, please bring it to our attention in Lodge.

Fraternally,
John Johanson, Worshipful Master
