From the EAST

Brothers,

Ten Master Masons, happy, doing fine; one listened to a rumor, then there were nine. Nine Master Masons, faithful, never late; One didn't like the "Master", then there were eight.

Eight Master Masons, on their way to Heaven; one joined too many clubs, then there were seven.

Seven Master Masons, life dealt some hard licks; one grew discouraged, then there were six.

Six Master Masons, all very much alive; one lost his interest, then there were five.

Five Master Masons, wishing there were more; got into a great dispute, then there were four.

Four Master Masons, busy as could be; one didn't like the programs, then there were three.

Three Master Masons, was one of them you? Grew tired of all the work, then there were two.

Two Master Masons, with so much to be done; one said "What's the use", then there was one.

One Master Mason, found a brother -- true! Brought him to Lodge, then there were two.

Two Master Masons, didn't find work a bore; each brought another, then there were four.

Four Master Masons, saved their Lodges fate; by showing others kindness, then there were eight.

Eight Master Masons, loving their Lodges bright sheen; talked so much about it, they soon counted sixteen.

Sixteen Master Masons, to their obligations true; were pleased when their number went to thirty-two.

Let's keep our obligation by serving even the very least.

John Johanson, Worshipful Master

From the South

Brothers, I can't believe it is February already. I would like to start out by thanking you for having the faith in me to vote me into the South. I would also like to thank Brother Jim for cooking the meal on a night that I could not be there.

I am looking forward to having a great year. For those of you that have not been attending regularly, you might want to think about dropping by. I have some good meals planned with the help of my wife and two daughters. If anyone has a favorite meal they would like to request, let me know. I'd be happy to prepare any that I can.

In closing, I thank you all for your thoughts and prayers and remind you to keep this lodge and all your brothers in your daily prayers. I believe this will be a really good year for our lodge.

Fraternally,

Rick Jones

Jr. Warden

From the West

Brothers,

February 14th, Valentines day, is soon upon us. It is a day of honoring our loved ones and making them feel special. As Masons, we should not relegate that expression to just one day a year, but should nourish our relationships every day throughout the year.

It should carry over to all our relationships, whether intimate, casual, or business. "You reap what you sow" is not such a casual catch phrase. What seeds will you be planting this year?

Fraternally,

John Johanson,W:.M:.

Congratulations to the following members:

From the Worshipful Master's Desk

Brothers,

It was discussed in Lodge that instead of making a monthly donation to charity, we will do it on a quarterly basis instead. Doing so would make more of a financial impact on the charity of our choosing. We also discussed trying to give to local charities that would, one, keep our monies here locally, and two, help expose our community to Masonry and hopefully bring in membership to our Lodges.

We are also looking at doing volunteer work locally. Starting with "The Children's Hunger Project" that was brought to my attention by W.: Bob Watkins and SW Matt Newhouse. It consists of packaging food for kids that are less fortunate in the community. We decided on the 26th of February, at 5:30. It is at 1855 W. King Street in Cocoa. W.: Bob is heading this up so contact him to get your name on the list. 321-783-7051
