History From the Lodge

George Washington

Washington was initiated, in 1752, in the Lodge at Fredericksburg, Virginia, and the records of that Lodge, still in existence, present the following entries on the subject. The first entry is thus: "Nov. 4th. 1752. This evening Mr. George Washington was initiated as an Entered Apprentice. On March 3 in the following year, "Mr. George Washington" is recorded as having been passed a Fellow Craft; and on August 4, same year, 1753, the record of the transactions of the evening states that he was raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason.

General Lafayette and General Washington shared not only a close friendship but membership in the Craft, a commonly used name for Freemasonry. On two occasions General Lafayette presented Masonic aprons to Washington. One of these aprons, embroidered in colored silks by Madame Lafayette, bore the emblems of the Holy Royal Arch degree. The fact that this apron was especially made for George Washington has led to much speculation that he was raised to that degree. This may be of considerable importance, for the "Royal Arch degree is the salient, spiritual degree of Freemasonry, not excepting the degree of Master Mason"

(Steinmetz, 1946, 67).

From the South

My Brothers,

Nothing in the South Worshipful Master.

Fraternaly,
Matt Newhouse, Junior Warden

From the Secretary's Desk

From the Secretary Corner of the Lodge-Room

July 2014

My Brethren, I have several questions that need to be affirmed with an answer? How did you hear about your Lodge? How did you find the location of this Lodge? When you came for the first time were the Brothers friendly? Did the Brothers answer all your Questions satisfactory? Were the Brothers comfortable with your response? Did the Brothers explain the reason of your Petition? When conversing with the Brothers did you find out you have something in common? Did the Brothers tell you the history of the Lodge? Were you impressed with the tour of the Lodge? Have you ever attended a Lodge Breakfast or Nightly Dinner? Do you have a Lodge Logo on one of your shirts or your automobile? When you became a member of the Lodge did you inform your friends of being a member? Are your family members aware of the reason you became a member? If married, is your wife a member of any Ladies Fraternities? Are you uncomfortable attending a Lodge? If so, why? Would the Lodge Brothers be pleased to see you attending a meeting? Yes, we would!!!

Several of our members have Certificates in their honor and yet, many do not even answer a request to come and receive them. The Worshipful Master would be honored to present any Certificate you're entitled to in your name and in the presence of the Brethren. We would be pleased to share this in your honor.

I asked all this for several reasons!!! Only Ten percent of the Brethren ever attend Lodge meetings and events. That is sad to have so many members and yet so many do not know how to attend a meeting and do not know the Officers. We meet on the Level; act by the Plumb; and part upon the Square. Once a member, always a member unless Dues are not paid. However, if you chose to purchase a Perpetual Membership you will never be suspended unless for some unfortunate circumstances beyond a Masons Obligation.

Fraternally,

R.: H.: Rodger Fowler, Secretary
