From the EAST

Brothers

As Independence Day rolls around again this year it gives us a chance to reflect on the price our forefathers and Masonic Brothers were willing to pay to give birth to this great nation. The great accomplishments in life always come with a cost or sacrifice to be borne. There have been many more Brothers that followed through the years that continued the Masonic legacy of leadership and doing what was right for the whole even if it was not the easier road to follow. It has been said lately that “the world is changing” and we need to change with it. But if that “changing world” means that we have to compromise our character and integrity and what we believe is right, then we have to fight that change or this great country that so many have fought hard to build will not be great for very long. Complacency and going with the flow will be our downfall.

Even though we are going dim this summer during July, August and September, we still have events going on and I hope to see everyone there if you can make it.

Fraternally,
John Johanson, W:.M:.

From the South

From the South

Brothers as we celebrate our country's independence, it reminds me of all our masonic forefathers. I hope everyone has a safe holiday and gets to spend time with our loved ones. For those of you who are travelling out of town, I encourage you to visit a lodge that may be having meetings. For those of you remaining here, please make an effort to attend our meetings. The more brothers that attend, the more meaningful the meetings are. Keep all our brothers in your prayers and have a great summer. I look forward to fellowship with all of you soon.

Fraternally,
Rick Jones, JW

From the West

Another very hot Florida month has gone by, and with the help of one of our Brothers I will finally get my a/c in my car fixed or convert it into a pizza delivery vehicle and guarantee everything arrives at a nice 120 degree temperature. I am only reminded of the time our lodge came together to get the a/c repaired. We always seem to meet every obstacle as nothing more, or more appropriately; nothing less than an opportunity to exemplify those Masonic ideals that define this ancient institution. I recently read a copy of "5-15 Minute Talks" by Worshipful Elbert Bede, a 33 degree Mason. A short read titled "Let Your Bucket Down Where You Are" tells of a ship off the coast of South America, whose captain kept signaling passing boats of his need for fresh water. All the replies were the same, most likely frustrating and infuriating the captain, until he finally listened. He let his bucket down where he was in the great saltwater Sea of the Atlantic off the coast of South America, and to his astonishment pulled up one full of fresh water. He hadn't known it, but his ship was off the mouth of the Amazon which dumped tons of fresh water into the Atlantic everyday. Everyday there are a myriad of opportunities right under our noses, of course we can and do affect change on the national and international level, one example of our flagship charities, whose discoveries often end up contributing to society at the global level. Whether its the Brother with a death trap of a car in Florida, or the ears of the other Brothers who have to hear one more Yankee complaining about the darn heat, or the more serious and embarrassing rate of hungry children living under the poverty level in Brevard County, or the hundreds of city workers who go about their important jobs everyday often times without getting that very simple but much need 'Thank you', there is much to do. Canaveral Lodge has been here for over 50 years. We are as old as the library, and we shared one of our important assets with the library: Brother and Mayor, Joe Morgan. This is our territory, our home, and our responsibility. I want to end this with a huge pat on the back to Brother Casey Roberts, for his drive and ambition to put together the first municipal worker appreciation day for the city workers of Cocoa Beach.

From the Worshipful Master's Desk

Brothers,

It was discussed in Lodge that instead of making a monthly donation to charity, we will do it on a quarterly basis instead. Doing so would make more of a financial impact on the charity of our choosing. We also discussed trying to give to local charities that would, one, keep our monies here locally, and two, help expose our community to Masonry and hopefully bring in membership to our Lodges.

If you know of a local charity that could benefit from our involvement, please bring it to our attention in Lodge.

Fraternally,
John Johanson, Worshipful Master
