A Little History about Benjamin Franklin & Freemasonry

On 8 December 1730, Benjamin Franklin printed in his newspaper, The Pennsylvania Gazette, the first documented notice about Freemasonry in North America. Franklin's article, which consisted of a general account of Freemasonry, was prefaced by the statement that 'there are several Lodges of FREE MASONS erected in this Province'... Franklin himself became a Freemason in February 1731, and Provincial Grand Master of Pennsylvania in 1734. In 1734 he printed Anderson's Constitutions as Mason Book, which was the first Masonic book printed in America

From the South

My Brothers,

We have just concluded the month of May & we are starting June. We have 2 monthly meals in addition to the refreshments before our Stated Meetings. Every 2nd Saturday we serve breakfast from 8-10 AM & every 4th Saturday we serve dinner from 5:30-7:30 PM. Our last dinner was a success thanks to Worshipful Rodney Bornefeld.

On a more serious note, if we are to continue our meals with this festive fellowship & allow us to enjoy the pleasures of friendship, we not only need those that come to eat but we need volunteers to help in the kitchen.

I will be posting a signup sheet for our upcoming meals.

Those Brothers who are able to answer the JW's call for help can write their names with their own hand & of their own free will. It is only a couple of hours for each meal & I hope our Lodge members will sign up.

Fraternally,
Matt Newhouse, Junior Warden

From the Secretary Corner of the Lodge-room

June 2014

My Brothers, this is a notice to all those who have not paid their 2014 Dues. June 2014
There are a few new Brothers in our Lodge to whom you have yet to meet. Just about all the ones you have known in the past are resting in Celestial Heavens, waiting for our visitation, hopefully not in the near future. It would be nice to see each and every one of you that are still living among us, at our Stated Meetings for companionship.
The financial status of your Lodge has improved enormously due to the hard work of several Past Masters. Our current officers and our new Brothers are working hard and coming along very well in their Catechism's and Degree work. Our Lodges' Saturday Breakfast and Saturday Nightly Dinners are both getting increased support.

Urgent Notice: My Brothers, again, the time is coming up on July 1st where I will be sending out Dues Notices of those who have yet submitted their 2014 Dues. Last year the Lodge suspended two Brothers for NPD, let this not be the case of your impending suspension. If you purchase a Perpetual Membership, the chance of Suspension drops practically to ZERO. Contact me for information.
Fourth of July Picnic will be early for the Lodge on June 27th at Cocoa Beach Country Club from 12 to 4 pm with plenty of food and drinks available. Come out and celebrate our Nation History early among your Brethren and then you can do it again on the 4th of July.
The Lodge will be hosting the DDGM Official visit on June 23rd then afterwards the Lodge meeting will be the second Monday of July, August, and September for the summer, please attend the meetings and enjoy yourself with your family this summer.

Fraternally,

R.: H.: Rodger Fowler, Secretary
