From the EAST

Brothers,

W.: Roger Fowler and I attended the 2015 Grand Communication in Orlando last week and it was a very good experience that everyone should try to attend whether you are an officer of the Lodge or not.

We have a new DDGM who will be visiting us on the 27th of July. So we will be having a practice before hand to refresh ourselves.

The Grand Master's visit will be on the 10th of July (Friday) at the AZAN Shrine Center for Dinner and then to the Harbor City Lodge for the Meeting.

We will be going Dim in the summer months of July, August and September. Holding meetings only on the fourth Monday of the month. Let's all try to attend if you can.

Let us all have a safe summer whether you travel out of town or stay around the area.

Fraternally,
John Johanson, W:..M:.

From the South

From the South

Summer is here. I may be in a minority, but summer is my favorite time of year. A lot of people will be going to the beach so this is a good opportunity to make some money in the parking lot. If you are able, please help park cars on the weekend. I am planning on making as often as I can. Remember that we do not go dark in the summer but we do go dim which means we will go down to one meeting a month. Please try and make those meetings as attendance is usually down due to our Snowbird brothers traveling home. In order to have good discussion and make proper and informative decisions, we need as many brothers as possible at the meetings. I will continue to provide meals before the meetings starting at 6:30. I look forward to fellowship with all of you soon.

Fraternally
Rick Jones, JW Canaveral Lodge #339

From the West

Wise Words from the West ;)

My brothers,
I was worried that when we went gray for the summer I wouldn't see your faces, but I have been proven wrong. It's always great to see Masons out in the community. I bumped into one brother at a picnic for a local association at the Port. I was allowed the chance to be included in another brother's hobby of lifting heavy furniture for a local church thrift shop. Makes me wish I had friends who had hobbies such as knitting or perhaps the always great activity of sitting. Just kidding. Not our lodge. Our fraternity prides itself in taking good men and making them better, and it's those better men that take a good community and make it better.

-Bro. SW.: Matt Newhouse

From the Worshipful Master's Desk

Brothers,

It was discussed in Lodge that instead of making a monthly donation to charity, we will do it on a quarterly basis instead. Doing so would make more of a financial impact on the charity of our choosing. We also discussed trying to give to local charities that would, one, keep our monies here locally, and two, help expose our community to Masonry and hopefully bring in membership to our Lodges.

We are also looking at doing volunteer work locally. Starting with "The Children's Hunger Project" that was brought to our attention by W:. Bob Watkins and SW Matt Newhouse. We discussed doing it again, and W:. Bob is checking on what they will be doing while school is out.
