From the EAST

Brothers,
Fall is here & hopefully we, Floridians, will start to enjoy cooler weather.
During the summer months we raised 3 brothers to the Sublime Degree of Master Mason. They were: Brothers Noral Koehn, Casey Roberts, & Rick Jones.
I would like to thank W.: Tom Savage, Brother Cliff Schmitt, and SW John Johanson for assisting in the Master Mason Degree ceremony of Brother Ricky Jones on September 20th at Melbourne Lodge.

Most of you are now aware that Brother Armin Wolle went to the Celestial Lodge above on September 17th, 2014. Brother Armin & I were involved in a tragic car accident while transporting a mother & her little boy back from the Shriners Hospital in Tampa. We were rear ended on Interstate 4 & pushed into 2 other vehicles.

We will all truly miss Brother Armin & as Masons we are charged to keep his family in our prayers. His wife, Fern Wolle, is a member of the Eastern Star, Chapter 297, located in Canaveral Lodge.

It was only a short time ago that Sister Fern's mother also went to the Celestial Lodge above.

Sincerely & Fraternaly,
Danny Cook, Worshipful Master

History From the Lodge

Grand Lodge of Florida History

The historical records of Freemasonry in Florida were for many years hidden from the world, lying dormant in unmarked and forgotten files. Historians made various attempts to report the early Masonic activities on this territory. Their efforts were in vain. In 1898, the first authoritative record of Masonry in Florida came to light. This record was a rare and very old copy of "Preston's Illustration" which was presented to the Grand Lodge of Florida by Doctor F. F. Bond of Thorncliff, Brighthouse, England. On the title page of the prized gift, the following words were inscribed: "The Gift of James Murray to St. Andrews Lodge No. 1, West Florida, June 27, 1776." This was the first reliable information that a Masonic Lodge had existed in Florida at such an early date and was the spark that kindled the interest to search for the history of Masonry in the Grand Jurisdiction of Florida. M . W . James M. Hilliard, Grand Master in 1898, appointed R. W . Silas B. Wright, Deputy Grand Master, to search for any additional information that might have a bearing on the history of Florida Masonry and to make a written report of his findings to the next Grand Lodge. Brother Wright made two appeals, one to the Board of Editors of the "History of Ancient and Honorable Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons and Concordant Orders," and the other to the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania. The Board of Editors was unable to furnish any information that would be beneficial or that would support historical facts about Masonry in Florida, but the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania reported that there were documents and records in possession of that Grand Lodge that would prove the existence of Masonry in Florida during the early period of the country. The records, so the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania reported, had been found among the old records of that Grand Jurisdiction which had been boxed and placed in storage. These records were compiled by the Library Committee of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania under the title "Old Masonic Lodge of Pennsylvania, Moderns and Ancients, 1730 1800." ### From the West

My Brothers,
Sometimes we need to discuss a subject that no one really wants to think about, much less talk about it. And that is death. What is going to happen when you go to "The Celestial Lodge Above". What is your family going to do, and how are they going to handle it? What if you become incapacitated and can't communicate your desires or wishes? Does your family know what you want? Have you specified who will make these decisions for you? You may be thinking, "I have plenty of time". That decision is not ours my Brothers. When God calls, he never gets a busy signal.

I was very fortunate my parents had a trust drawn up and discussed everything with me back in the early 1990's. It specified how they wanted to be treated by the Doctor/Hospital, and who would be making those decisions for them if needed. It also detailed their assets, both in and out of the trust, and how they were to be dispersed. Which made taking care of things at a very difficult time a whole lot easier.

So, if you haven't done so already. I implore you to discuss this with your family as it is very important for both you and them. After discussing it with my parents, I had my own Trust drawn up.

Hoping to see all of you for a very long time.

Brother Armin Wolle, you are a Mason's Mason, a Shriner's Shriner, and a Man's Man. I am honored to have known you, and followed your Leadership. You will be truly missed by all, but never forgotten.

Brother John Johanson, SW

From the Worshipful Master's Desk

Grand Lodge Per Capita went up by $6.00, effective August 1st, 2014. During our last Stated Meeting on August 11th we voted to increase our Lodge dues from $66.00 to $90.00. This will be in addition to Grand Lodge Per Capita fees.

Grand Lodge per capita fees are currently $20.00, making the total annual dues amount of $90.00 (Blue Lodge) plus $20.00 (Grand Lodge) for a total of $110.00 .

We had the final vote concerning our dues increase at our Stated Meeting on September 8th at 7:30 PM. It was so approved to raise our Lodge dues from $66.00 to $ 90.00. Our by-laws have been changed to reflect this & other changes & sent to the Grand Master for approval.

Sincerely & Fraternaly,
Danny Cook, Worshipful Master

From the Secretary's Corner of the Lodge-Room

October 2014

The Lodge has lost a Great Mason. Brother, Treasurer Armin George Wolle who brought wisdom and smiles to the Masonic Lodge; the Eastern Star Chapter and to all his brother & sisters in Canaveral Lodge. His family has lost more than someone they could always count on. He was a real family man; a true co-worker; and one with a vision of great things for his family; lodge; Chapter; and AZAN Temple. He enjoyed working with the Shriners Hospital by transporting children to and from their abode, seeing that they got to their appointments on time. The Star Chapter lost a true Friend who was serving as Associate Patron with his lovely wife, Sister Fern, who is Associate Matron. Their plans for advancing to the East together have now been altered

Worshipful Master Danny Cook; Brother Treasurer Armin George Wolle were involved in a Tragic accident of which was not of their making. Armin was killed and Danny received injuries on September 17 near Plant City, Florida on Interstate 4.

In Memory of Brother Armin George Wolle; the Brothers of Canaveral Lodge and Sisters of Canaveral Chapter: "God Loves You and so do We". Please keep Sister Fern in your prayers so she will have the strength to carry on their legacy.

Please keep Worshipful Danny in your prayers that he will be as healthy as before.

R.:W.: Rodger Fowler
Secretary

ATTENTION MEMBERS

We installed a "No Trespassing Sign" and a Video Surveillance Camera & Sign on the North side of the Lodge.

The new Lodge plaques look fantastic and we thank Right Honorable Rodger Fowler for his generosity and his hard work in getting them made. Thank You Brother Rodger.
