From the East

My Brothers,

Another beautiful summer in Cocoa Beach has arrived. And with the sunshine, comes the beautiful tourists who pay us to use our parking lot on the weekends. PM Cook and Bro. Schmidt has been busy handling the parking on weekends, and any brother who has the time to sit for a half hour or so on a weekend, please feel free to lend a hand. This easy opportunity can allow us to plan for future projects and increase our charity.

Fraternally,
WM: Mattan Newhouse

From the West

Rather than our usual message from the West, all of the Brothers at Canaveral Lodge have a message of love and warm wishes for our Senior Warden and his wife: Theresa Jones.

From the South

I attended the Grand Lodge in Jacksonville, which was an interesting experience. I got to see how the legislation, rules, and regulations are developed and adopted. I had the opportunity and privilege to vote on issues relating to the state, our district and our Lodge. To see the Grand Master and his staff work during this time was very interesting and enlightening.

The items voted on that were passed will have some effect on our lodge, but not a great impact. For example, zones and districts will be changed throughout the state. However, the only difference in our district will be that it changed from District 26 to District 17. There will be no movement or changes within our district other than the number.

Many items were discussed and voted on which will eventually change for the better in regards to Masonic education and ritual, such as the combination of the Red Book with the Floor Book. This will be beneficial because there will not be the need to go back and forth from one book to the other; they'll be combined into one book. But with that being said, there are changes yet to be made to make this happen. Grand Lodge and its assigned committees will be diligently working on this.

And, as always, I look forward to preparing delicious meals for the brethren.

Fraternally,
Terry Lewis, JW

From the Secretary Desk

My Brothers, July is approaching at a rapid pace as our lives do each day. Each day as I check the Lodge Post Office Box with anticipation seeing an envelope from one of our devoted members, to no avail, it only collects dust, only monthly bills. Remember, in July I will be sending out letters to some of our members, try not be one of them.

However, we have set the Lodge on course of Beautifying the Lodge Building and surrounding grounds. To remember what your Lodge look like, come and see and hear the changes that has been suggested by several of our members. You will be impressed with the suggestions. Summer is here and we hope you will enjoy time with family and friends. In my case, I was elected in Grand Court of Amaranth to be the Grand Royal Patron and will be traveling with Grand Royal Matron, Honored Lady Judy Mosing for the next 12 months here and there, and hopefully being at our Lodge Stated Meetings.

The Craft will bring up the subject in the next couple meeting to have only meeting in the months of July; August and September. Your Lodge has been getting more visitors than members attending and it would be great to have our visitors see more of us than the Officers or few members. The new Officers would like to get to know many of our long time members. I for one have met most of you, but it has been ages since then.

Sincerely, Rodger Fowler
