From the South

My Brothers, as you can see on the calendar included in this Trestle Board, our Lodge will be passing our two youngest Brothers to the degree of FC on March 31st. I hope those of you who are able, will take the time to attend. Some of us can't wait to attend our Grammy-worthy MM degree.

You should consider attending our FC degree as well. During the time of Operative Masons, one started out as an Apprentice and only after mastering the trade, was called before the Lodge to do a Master's Piece to show his skill. Upon approval with a ballot, the Apprentice became a Fellow of the Craft, also known as a Master Mason. Having only these two distinctions between an Apprentice and a Fellow/Master was retained even after the forming of the Grand Lodge of England in 1717.

However, the amount of ritual work took up more time than could comfortably fit in two degrees, so the first degree was split in two: the EA and the FC, and the original second degree became the today's third, the MM degree.

Much of the symbolisms we use in Freemasonry are explained in the FC degree. Personally, I always enjoy the lecture and explanations even though I have heard it many times before.

Let us all attend, share a good meal, enjoy the fellowship, and support our youngest Brothers who are making the same journey we have all embarked on, with the same enthusiasm which we, ourselves have also experienced

Fraternaly,
Matt Newhouse, Junior Warden

The Worshipful Master's Corner March- 2014

Freemasonry is composed of a family of organizations bound by common purposes and ideals; dedicated to improving life by improving human kind. Blue Lodge Masonry (also known as Craft or Symbolic Masonry) is the starting point. To be affiliated with any other part of the family you must first be a Blue Lodge Mason or a member of a Blue Lodge Mason's family. Once made a Master Mason, other Masonic Organizations are open for membership. These include: The York Rite of Freemasonry. The Scottish Rite of Freemasonry. And The Shrine. The Order of the Eastern Star, is a Masonic organization open to men and women; and your children can become a part of several organizations, including DeMolay for boys, Jobs Daughters and Rainbow for girls.

In the Beginning...

The Blue Lodge is the beginning of Masonry. It is the foundation on which all other Masonic organizations are built.

Origins...

Many Masons believe that the Fraternity has its origins in the building of King Solomon's Temple and that the three degrees represent the three classes of workmen, the Entered Apprentice, Fellow Craft, and Master Mason. In fact, these are the names of the three degrees of the Blue Lodge. Others believe that the Fraternity was born from the guilds of stone masons who built the castles and cathedrals of medieval Europe. Other "popular" theories claim the Fraternity was originated by the Pharaohs of ancient Egypt or as a place for the Knights Templar to hide after the purge by Phillip of France and Clemet V in 1307. What we do know for sure is that organized Speculative Freemasonry began in 1717 when four London lodges came together at the Goose and Gridiron Ale House, St Paul's Churchyard, and formed them into a Grand Lodge. Masonry in the United States can be traced back to early colonial times. By the American Revolution there were an estimated 250 lodges in the colonies. Many Masons of the time, including George Washington, Nathaniel Greene and Henry Knox were staunch patriots. Many claim that the Declaration of Independence and the Bill of Rights were documents founded upon Masonic principles.

In the United States each state and the District of Columbia is organized independently under its own Grand Lodge. Individual Lodges are chartered by the Grand Lodge and work under that charter. Masonry teaches good men to become better, not better than others, but better than themselves. It teaches life's lessons through a progressive series of degrees. Symbolic or Blue Lodge Masonry is composed of the degrees of Entered Apprentice, Fellow Craft, and Master Mason. It is the foundation upon which all other Masonic orders are based. The prescribed ritual is taught using symbolism and allegories, the interpretation and value of each is unique to each brother mason, based upon his own experiences.

Fraternally & Sincerely,

Danny Cook, Worshipful Master

THE THUNDERING 26th MASONIC DISTRICT MASONS

The 26th Masonic District held a Masonic Child ID Event at the Crane Community Center in Melbourne, Florida on February 22, 2014. The program processed 22 children, including a couple of seniors. In attendance at this event were: W.: Terry Hill of Palm Bay Lodge, W.: Kirk Hall of Beach Lodge, Brothers Noral Kohen, Cliff Schmitt, & Armin Wolle from Canaveral Lodge, Brother Romel Saweress of Harbor City Lodge & W.: M.: Danny Cook of Canaveral Lodge. As the new Chairman of the 26th Masonic District for the Child ID Program, I extend my warmest thanks to those brothers that gave up their personal time to help with a very good cause. Thank You.

Masonic Memorial Service

On February 23rd, 2014, Canaveral Lodge held a Masonic Memorial Service for Brother Junior Cameron of Muncy Lodge No. 299 in Muncy, PA. There were approximately 75 people in attendance. Brother Junior was a 50 year Mason & 90 years young. Brother Junior & his wife Kilda visited our lodge many times just for the fellowship & our breakfast. The service was held at the Veterans' Memorial Park behind Merritt Square Mall. (cont.)

(memorial service cont.)

In attendance was:

W.: M.: Danny Cook, (Presiding Officer)
W.: Dan Maltby (Great Lights),
Brother Armin Wolle (Chaplain),
RH Rodger Fowler (Secretary).

Ms. Kilda Cameron was very appreciative of Canaveral Lodge for us putting on this Memorial Service for her husband. We must have done a great job, as we got a hardy applause from the crowd. Ms. Cameron looks forward to having breakfast at our lodge in the future and bringing her friends and neighbors.

Monthly Lodge Dinner for February

Our monthly dinner at the lodge was a success. Whenever we make a profit, I call this a success. We thank Brother Matt Newhouse all his hard work in putting on this dinner for the lodge. As he is a real Junior in the kitchen. He is learning fast and doing a fantastic job. He is in need of more help in the kitchen, as he is new in all aspects of shopping, cooking, serving & cleaning up. If you can lend him a hand, he would surely appreciate it.

Our next lodge meal is a breakfast on March 8th from 8:00 AM until 10:00 AM.

Please join us for a great breakfast & even better fellowship.
