From the EAST

Dear Brothers,
Our lodge started the year off with a bang and we stayed very busy up and until the summer months. During those summer months our Officers and members alike were vacationing out of State and lodge activities were slowed as a result.

We were able to find a new source of income this year which has allowed us to make plans for improvements to the lodge.

There are only two months left in 2014, so we need to start focusing on next year (2015).

So please take note that our Lodge officer elections will be held on the first meeting in December.

So if you are unsure of your vote, you should really try to attend a lodge breakfast, one of the lodge dinners we have before our regular stated meeting or if at all possible, attend a lodge meeting.

Get to know the new members as well as the older members and evaluate their abilities for the upcoming line.

Lodge Treasurer is a very important position and since tragedy struck our lodge this year we will be looking to fill that position.

Sincerely & Fraternaly,
Danny Cook, Worshipful Master

History From the Lodge

Freemasonry Prior to 1717

Freemasonry (or Speculative Masonry) developed out of the guilds and associations of operative stonemasons, during the late sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries. By 1700, numerous Masonic lodges were in existence throughout England, Scotland and Ireland. Each lodge was considered independent unto itself, and there was no supervisory body that governed all of Freemasonry. This led to some confusion, as ritual variations developed and disputes as to the legitimacy of various lodges arose. In 1717 members of four lodges in London elected to form what they called a "Grand Lodge" to supervise the fraternity and grant charters to new lodges. Not all lodges, however, accepted the self-proclaimed authority of this Grand Lodge, and soon formed rival Grand Lodges of their own.

Master's & Wardens

The Master's & Wardens meeting for December was originally scheduled to be held at Merritt Island Lodge, but due to the ongoing construction, Canaveral Lodge will again assist by lending our Lodge as the meeting place.

So once again our members have an opportunity to attend the December Masters and Wardens meeting without traveling too far.

Some of us don't always have a chance to visit other lodges during their regular stated meetings so this is a great opportunity to see brothers from other lodges. I do hope you will take advantage of this opportunity.

Sincerely & Fraternally,
Danny Cook, Worshipful Master

From the Secretary's Corner of the Lodge-Room

November 2014

Brethren, the end of the current year is coming to a close and there are three members who have not submitted their 2014 Dues. If you do not have a current 2014 Dues Card, then I will be reporting to the Craft on December 8th of those who are not current. As for 2015 Dues, there are 46 members who have not paid theirs.

Attendance is minimum; hopefully interest in Lodge business will encourage you to see your Lodge continue to be prosperous and fellowship with new and seasoned Brothers. Masonic Education is enlightened and well worth hearing stories of your Brethren who are traveling outside of District 26th.

November and December we will have two meetings for each month. The first meeting in December is the Election of your 2015 Officers. Show your support by casting your decisions for next year Officers.

November 11th is Veterans Day, so if you are able, please try to attend the Massing of Colors at Eastern Florida State College in Cocoa. It is the largest in the USA and starts around 3pm.

Remember these dates: Lodge Breakfast 11/8/2014 & 12/13/2014 from 8 to 10am; Canaveral Chapter Christmas Brunch November 30 from 8am to 1pm. Contact me if you wish to support the Sisters of the Eastern Star.

I have Lodge Certificates for several Brothers so if you have received a letter stating as such; then the Worshipful Master and Brethren would be pleased to see you receive your Certificate, in Lodge.

Please keep your current Worshipful Master Danny Cook in your Prayers and the widow of Brother Treasurer Armin Wolle, Sister Fern too.
