From the East

Todd Forschino, WM
My Brothers,

We are at the halfway mark of my year, and I want to express my sincere gratitude for your support throughout my year as Worshipful Master. I have learned so much from you all, and I am truly grateful for your guidance and mentorship. I remember the first time I stepped into the lodge. I was nervous and unsure what to expect, but your warm smiles and friendly greetings immediately welcomed me. You made me feel like I belonged, and I knew I had found a place to learn and grow.

We have our 9th Annual Mini-Golf event on Saturday, July 15, 2023, at the Azan Shrine Center in Melbourne. This event will take place from 10:00 AM-2:00 PM. I would love to see you and your families attend and support our Lodge as well as the others in District 17. There will be nine holes, all representing each Lodge in our District. A donation is requested to play. Come out for fun, fellowship, food, and more.

The officers of the Lodge had a working meeting with our RWDDGM, and our Lodge is doing well. We are always looking to improve and will be working with RW Lou on some ideas for automation in our business actions and digital vouchers. More to come as we progress in this area.

On Monday, September 11, 2023, we will have our Official D.D.G.M. to our Lodge. All officers must be in White Jacket/Tux, Black Bow Tie, White Dress Shirt, and Black Pants/Shoes. We will have a practice on Monday, August 21, 2023, at 6:30 PM at Canaveral Lodge to prepare for the receiving of the RW, RH, and Committeemen.

Whatever your plans are for the Independence Day Celebration, enJOY the time with family and friends and cherish these moments.

Fraternally,
Worshipful Master

Todd Forschino

From the West

Robert Wicker II, SW

Brethren

As I write this article, we are putting on the presentation of signing the Declaration of Independence. If you weren't there the last time we did it, it was a lot of fun and something different for an open meeting at the Lodge. We have been doing some fun stuff at the Lodge and would love to have you involved.

We will be dark in July and August, but we hope to see you in the fall. Be safe and healthy.

Fraternal Love,
Senior Warden

Robert Wicker

From the South

Rick Schulze, JW

Brothers,

It's that time of year when we think of vacation while in the dark, as we say. Our last meeting before going dark for the summer was an open one. We were graced by Brother Steve Agid, who reenacted the Declaration of Independence signing as John Hancock at Canaveral #339.

We will hold a clean-up day at the Lodge on Saturday, August 12, 2023, starting at 8:00 AM. More hands do light work, and I hope you can make it out to help beautify our Lodge. If you read this after we have gone dark, I wish everyone a restful and enjoyable summer and will see you in September.

Peace and love must always prevail in our hearts, minds, and all of our doings.

Junior Warden:

Rick Schulze

Circumscribe Disabled - Amity App Active

The time has come when we need to keep up with technology and advance our membership. Circumscribe has been disabled as of April 6, 2023, and we are moving to the Amity App, which is far more up-to-date with today's technology.

Members can access information on the Amity App on their smartphones. We are also working on a Member's Portal, much like the Secretary's Portal, whereby you can access your membership and take Master Mason Exams. This tool is not live yet, but we are getting close, and more information is to follow.

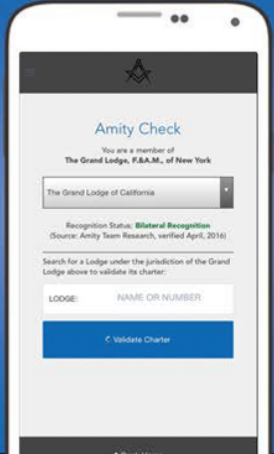

At this time, you can pay dues through the Amity App.

*If you have not made your 2023 Dues Payment, please do so as soon as possible.*

THE GRAND TYLER'S SWORD

ARTURO de NOYOS, 33°, GC, Grand Archivist and Grand Historian

Officers of Masonic organizations have distinctive emblems of office that can differ, depending upon the organization. Some of the best known are the square, plumb, and level. Others are a combination of working tools, which may be adorned by the sun, moon, or another object altogether, such as a Bible or cornucopia. The Tyler (or Tiler) bears an appropriate long-used emblem. He is posted outside the door to ensure that no one enters who is not qualified and has permission of the presiding officer. There he holds the implement of his office—a sword. As the title of his office implies, he “tiles,” or covers, the lodge to ensure its privacy, and his sword is an apt symbol signifying the importance of his duty.

Ill. Albert G. Mackey, 33°, who was once Grand Secretary General of our Supreme Council, believed that the sword’s proper form should be a flamberge or “flaming sword”—a wavy blade—alluding to that carried by the cherubim, which guarded the tree of life in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 3:24). Some Masonic organizations use that form, while others have their own unique styles, and still others permit the use of any. My own mother lodge in Texas used a cavalry saber, and I have visited lodges that use claymores, short swords, long swords, rapiers, scimitars, and more. Most commonly seen is the York Rite Knight Templar sword.

The Supreme Council long has had an official “sword of state” carried by the Grand Sword Bearer, but it never had an official Grand Tyler’s sword—until now—thanks to the generosity of the Orients of Florida and Missouri.

Although the Supreme Council long has had an official “sword of state” carried by the Grand Sword Bearer, we never had an official Grand Tyler’s sword—until now. Over the years, we have used any available sword in the House of the Temple (including one or two of my own) during the Biennial Sessions. All of this changed in 2021! Under the direction of Sovereign Grand Commander James D. Cole, 33°, the Supreme Council commissioned an official Grand Tyler’s sword, sponsored by the Orient of Florida.

“When the new Tyler’s sword was discussed at one of our Zoom meetings for Supreme Council, this one thought came to mind,” Ill. Richard G. Hoover, 33°, SGIG in Florida, said. “The Tyler’s Sword is a symbol that we stand guard and watch over our Fraternity. The Orient of Florida takes pride in doing just that. All eleven Valleys are proud and honored that this could be done. It is a beautiful symbol.”

Manufactured by New London Regalia (with more than 100 years of Masonic sword-making experience), the majestic sword includes a straight, double-sided blade, one side of which is etched “Grand Tyler’s Sword A.A.S.R., S.J. U.S.A.” The other side notes that this was a gift of the Orient of Florida. The faux ivory grip bears the double-headed eagle of the Thirty-third Degree on one side and a cross potent on the other. The gilded pommel and cross guard (connected by a chain) depict emblems of mortality—a skull and crossbones, the latter displaying a red-enam ded triangle with the numerals 33. The scabbard's upper suspension rings are attached to a locket which also bears the double-headed eagle, beneath which is a red-enameled cross potent. The mid locket has a rayed triangle with a 33. Finally, the scabbard's decorative shoe and chape bear a Calvary cross and triangle.

Since such a magnificent symbol of protection should be stored and safeguarded properly in its own right, the Orient of Missouri sponsored a beautiful display case befitting the new sword. This is still being prepared and will be available for use shortly.

"The Scottish Rite Brothers of Missouri are humbly honored to provide the Tyler's Sword display as an important showcase for this treasure within the House of the Temple," Ill. Robert W. Cockerham, 33rd Grand Chancellor and SGIG in Missouri, said. "To the Glory of God, and as a reminder to all brethren who seek wisdom to 'Know Thyself'—by knowing and serving God, oneself, and others—we will continue preserving, protecting, and defending the everlasting principles of Scottish Rite Freemasonry."

Grand Tyler William G. L. Turner, 33rd, opens the public session of the Supreme Council, 33rd, S.J., USA, on August 22, 2021, using a York Rite Knight Templar sword. Until recently, he had to carry "any available sword in the House of the Temple."

These beautiful gifts from the Orients of Florida and Missouri will serve the Supreme Council for generations, and they will be on display in the House of the Temple for visitors to enjoy in the near future. Please come visit and see them for yourself! *
